

Think of a time that you were amazed by a
new technology.
Why?

What's the
most embarrassing thing about your technology?

Would you
change it now?
Why?

Consider the setting
this technology will be used in &
why this is important.

How can your technology embody human
virtues?

